

MUSEUM MATTERS

Making and Unmaking Mexico's National Collections

---

EDITED BY

Miruna Achim, Susan Deans-Smith, and Sandra Rozental

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
------------------------	-----------

Introduction: A Mexican Cabinet of Unlikely Things	3
----------------------------------------------------	---

MIRUNA ACHIM, SUSAN DEANS-SMITH, SANDRA ROZENTAL

I. CANONS

1. "A History Worthy of the Grandeur of the Spanish Nation": Collecting Mexican Antiquity in the Viceroyalty of New Spain SUSAN DEANS-SMITH	25
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

2. Forgery and the Science of the "Authentic" MIRUNA ACHIM AND BERTINA OLMEDO VERA	55
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

3. Body Objects in Transit: National Pathology between Anatomy Museums and the Museo Nacional de México, 1853–1912 LAURA CHÁZARO	81
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

II. FRAGMENTS

4. The Tangled Journey of the Cross of Palenque CHRISTINA BUENO	111
--------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

5. Past and Present at the Museo de Historia Natural FRIDA GORBACH	135
-----------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

6.	Clues and Gazes: Indigenous Faces in the Museo Nacional de Antropología	159
	HAYDEÉ LÓPEZ HERNÁNDEZ
7.	Unsettled Objects: The Pacific Collection at the Museo Nacional de las Culturas	191
	CARLOS MONDRAGÓN
III. DISTURBANCES
8.	Tehuantepec on Display: Tlalocs, Theodolites, Fishing Traps, and the Cultures of Collecting in the Mid-Nineteenth Century	217
	MIRUNA ACHIM
9.	Conjuring Violence Away with Culture: The Purépecha National Emblem in the Museo Nacional de Antropología	243
	MARIO RUFER
10.	A Monolith on the Street	265
	SANDRA ROZENTAL
Contributors		289
Index		293